

Essential Preparation for Assignments Overseas

Whether your staff or volunteers are travelling overseas on their first posting or are experienced with global assignments there are always things to learn as new risks become apparent across the world.

CiC instructors can equip employees with a toolbox of proven methods and techniques to enhance safety and build a resilient approach.

From choosing a hotel room and hailing a taxi at the airport to living and working in challenging or hostile environments we offer bespoke courses for individuals and teams while they are employed abroad in unfamiliar surroundings.

Following assignment CiC can tailor a debrief programme to your needs, ensuring all potential trauma is given adequate space and support.
